

We set Time Machine Gardens an enormous challenge of constructing an instantly mature wildlife pond, on a hilltop in the Chiltern's designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. This project not only required considerable expertise, but also a highly sympathetic approach towards working in such demanding conditions. Thanks to their painstaking attention to detail and professionalism, the project was a huge success and we have no hesitation in giving our full recommendation.

Mr A Curry
Charterhouse

